JOHANNESBURG DESIGN WEEK

South African design is growing from strength-to-strength and gaining widespread international recognition but it remains out of the reach of ordinary South Africans. Johannesburg Design Week aims to make good design and an understanding of design accessible to a broad South African audience and to demystify the concept of great design.

BEST OF THE BEST

The search is on for South Africa's best designers, whether of décor, furniture, lighting, jewellery or fashion. The Best of the Best curated display at the Rand Show will showcase the work of innovative South African designers providing them with market access to a broad consumer audience.
